12 v.

13 QUICKEN LOANS, INC.,

14 Defendant.

Case No. 5:19-cv-00163-FMO-SP

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING JOINT STIPULATION TO CONTINUE NOVEMBER 6, 2019
EVIDENTIARY HEARING

15
16 Having reviewed the parties' joint stipulation to continue the November 6, 2019
17 evidentiary hearing, the Court finds good cause and hereby orders as follows:

18 In light of the parties good faith coordination efforts and counsel for Plaintiffs'
19 pre-existing scheduling conflicts, including both long-scheduled international travel
20 and several previously scheduled out-of-state, in-person obligations in other cases,
21 including oral arguments on motions for summary judgment and motions to dismiss,
22 the Court finds good cause for a short continuance of the evidentiary hearing currently
23 scheduled for November 6, 2019;

24 Plaintiffs' request for a short continuance of the evidentiary hearing on 25 Defendant's motion to compel arbitration currently scheduled for November 6, 2019 is
26 GRANTED;

27
28 [PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING
JOINT STIPULATION TO CONTINUE EVIDENTIARY HEARING

The evidentiary hearing is hereby continued to December 9, 16, 17, 18, or 19, or a date thereafter at the Court's convenience that is also acceptable to both Parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED:

Hon. Fernando M. Olguin
United State District Judge
